

Virtual Tours

Explore tours according to location/topic

Temple Mount	Babylonian Jewry	Sea to Sea	City of David	Jaffa
Interfaith Jerusalem	Tel Aviv	Masada	Modern Jerusalem	Galilee Pioneers
Book of Jonah	Sukkot	Hanukkah	Yom Hazikaron	Mount Sinai

*most popular***

The Temple Mount: Inside the Launchpad for Holiness and History

Every generation and empire that came through Jerusalem has left their mark, let's unpack the 3,000 year old puzzle to understand each and every layer. This will help us understand the religious significance of the Mount to Jews, Christians, and Muslims. An in-person visit to the Temple Mount for non-Muslims does not allow entry into the Al Aqsa Mosque or the famous golden Dome of the Rock - the exact spot of where the First and Second Temples once stood. On this virtual tour we get to venture inside these places and explore them up close and personal. Preview here!

Tel Aviv: The Birth and Growth of the First Hebrew City

Though Jerusalem is the eternal Jewish capital, Tel Aviv is the first Jewish city from its inception to today. This tour looks at the stories of the people who left their mark on the city and the stunning architecture that reflects the values of Israel's cultural capital. Full tour with Camp Ramah!

From Sea to Sea: The Famed Mediterranean to Kinneret Hike

What normally takes three days of difficult hiking across the country, we will do in an hour with a glass of Israeli wine and fun music! Hiking in the small but diverse landscape of Israel is a true Israeli cultural experience. Our trek will be our backdrop for exploring sites, both ancient and modern, which had a lasting impact on the local areas of the north and the rest of the country. Preview here!

Jerusalem Now: A Dialogue Between the Ancient and Modern

Get to know Jerusalem's modern city landmarks: the shuk (market) of Machaneh Yehuda, the ultra-Orthodox neighbourhood of Mea She'arim, the Knesset, Mount Herzl, and more! Understand the interplay between the ancient and the new - how both influence each other.

Old Jaffa: Stories of the Ancient and Modern Gateway to Israel

Jaffa's Old City is filled with tragic moments of conflict juxtaposed with great periods of dialogue and innovation. We will relive stories as ancient as Greek mythological tales and Tanakh and as modern as the Jaffa Orange and 1948 - and everything in between! Jaffa's riveting stories and legends help us piece together the city's history and provide the insight to how it morphed into one of the most famous cities in the world. Preview here!

From King David to King Herod: A Millennium of Expansion

Watch the modest Canaanite city of Jerusalem grow and expand before your eyes through aerial shots, underground tunnels, and video models reconstructing the ancient city. Understand the most important and contentious findings in Biblical archaeology as we bring to life some of the most famous moments in Jerusalem's biblical history.

The Galilee: Israel's Social Experiment Lab

The north of Israel has always been on the cutting edge of Jewish societal experimentation. The growth of Jewish Tzfat in the 16th century sparked a spiritual revolution in Judaism still felt today. The socialist idealism of the Second Aliyah in the beginnings of the 20th century set the tone for modern Zionism. Experience the sights and sounds of the Galilees most famous figures and impactful lessons.

In the Footsteps of Jonah

Jonah is a unique prophet whose famous story manages to be relatable and confounding. Experience Jonah's tale like never before by following his voyage from Jaffa towards Tarshish in modern Spain and ending in ancient Nineveh - modern day Mosul, Iraq. Along the way, we will contextualize the Jonah story with other mythological tales of great sea creatures and try to unlock as many of Jonah's mysteries as possible. Preview here!

Sukkot Then and Now: Judaism's Most Peculiar Holiday

Sukkot is Judaism's strangest holiday, filled with traditions and a history that both delight and confuse. This tour looks at everything from the most ancient evidence found of practicing sukkot and the Tanakh's description of the holiday to the colorful and diverse customs of Sukkot today in Israel and around the Jewish world.

The Mighty Maccabees: Tales of Battles, Independence, and Miracles

The famed Hasmonean dynasty was the last period of Independent Jewish rule in Israel for over 2,000 years. And they left an indelible mark on the landscape of Israel. Let's explore personalities, sites, battles, and buildings that make the heroes of Hanukkah so important and interesting to this day.

The Person and the Hero: Commemorating the Fallen of Israel

Yom Hazikaron (Israel's Remembrance Day) commemorates Israeli lives lost in uniform and from acts of terror. This tour looks at the lives of five people through stories, songs, and images allowing for participants of any age and knowledge background to create a personal connection. We will experience the day without limitations of distances between memorials, giving us the ability to visit the memories across the country and the decades. Preview here!

Surviving, Thriving, and Connecting in the Sinai

Visit the stunning St. Catherine's Monastery and Jabal Mousa of the Sinai Desert, traditionally the site of Mount Sinai. As well, see the deserts' significant sites to the history of the Israelites and other peoples who trekked through and lived there. While journeying here, we will delve into the lives of the ancients to help us understand how it was possible that people could enjoy great lives in the harshest conditions. These sites and stories are difficult for most people to see in real life - this virtual experience is a unique opportunity to explore these places and doesn't require any mountain climbing! Preview here!

From Jerusalem's Destruction and Exile to Transformation in Babylon

Experience the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem and then trek with the exiles of Jerusalem through modern day Lebanon, Syria, Turkey, and Iraq until eventually arriving in the city of Babylon itself. See how the Israelites/Jews survived and even thrived in their new diaspora communities. For over a millennium, this was the center of the Jewish world. We will see what was built and how much remains today despite the volatile region. Preview here!

The Glorious Rise and Heroic Fall of Masada

Herod's fortress, palace, and town of Masada is one of the Roman period's greatest architectural feats - seemingly conquering nature. A few decades later, it served as the last stand for the Zealots of Judea against Rome. See both the rise and fall of this UNESCO Heritage Site through both lenses.

Interfaith Tour of Jerusalem

Jerusalem is famously holy to Jews, Muslims, and Christians alike. See the well-known and hidden sites that best exemplify the shared traditions and influences that each has on the other. Preview here!

Stay tuned for more to come!